

Shapiro test p-value = $1.412e-17$

A violin plot showing the distribution of the number of children per woman. The plot is centered around 2.5, with a box plot indicating the median and interquartile range. The distribution is highly skewed to the right, with a long tail extending upwards. The plot is overlaid on a grid.

INROnto